OPPENHEIMER
ELEMENTARY

Thank you for all those that attended last month's PAC meeting where our school liaison officer provided us with some information on Internet Safety. The power point that was shared at the January meeting is posted on our PAC website. Our school liaison officer, Kathy Chan, can be reached at 604.353.6751 if you want additional information.

At this month's PAC meeting, our principal Hope Sterling, will be giving us more information on the Sex Education curriculum and will be taking questions from parents. Our next meeting is on Wed., February 10th at 6:45 p.m.

Direct Drive Survey – closes Thursday, February 4th

On Friday, we sent out a survey link asking for parents to provide us with input. We are wondering whether to offer Direct Drive this Spring or not. Please CLICK HERE to provide your feedback.

Spending Update

Where does our fundraising money go? To date, all of the items on the Teacher Wishlist for 2020/2021 have been purchased: four Apple TVs, thirty-six noise cancelling headsets and Bluetooth speakers for each division. We continue to fund the spending accounts we create for each staff member to support them in purchasing items for student and classroom learning.

Grade 7 Parents/Guardians

A reminder to all grade 7 parents/guardians to please send your grade 7's photo for the grad yearbook to Opp.grade07@gmail.com. If you have any questions about this reminder, please send inquiries to this e-mail.

OPTION 4 Families

Feb 3 – 9 Home Schooling Conference

In our school district there are just under 3500 students that have opted for option 4. This week there is an online conference being offered to home schoolers, that some parents that are participating in distributed learning, may wish to attend. For all the details, go to: [The Canadian Online Homeschool Conference \(canadianhomeschoolconference.com\)](http://The Canadian Online Homeschool Conference (canadianhomeschoolconference.com))
